- All fees are due at the time of services unless other arrangements have been made.
- New Beginnings Counseling does not bill insurance. You will receive a receipt for services, which can be submitted to your insurance company, and they may or may not reimburse you depending on your policy.
- New Beginnings Counseling is not able to accept Medicaid or Medicare as those services are reserved for community mental health agencies.
- Acceptable forms of payment are cash, checks, debit and credit cards (but not Discover or American Express).
- Checks should be made payable to Lynne Springer, MSW, or New Beginnings Counseling.
- You may be billed for a no-show appointment. A 24-hour notice to change or cancel an appointment is required except under uncontrollable circumstances.

I have read and understand the fee schedule. Based on my/our net annual income, I agree to pay the counseling fee per session of _____.
